

SACKS AND CO.

NEW YORK

December 12, 2010

AGENDA

I AM SECRETLY AN IMPORTANT MAN

Dir. Peter Sillen. This atmospheric documentary about the life and art of troubled Seattle poet Steven J. Bernstein may not immediately entice given its semi-obscure subject matter—though he's honored as a forerunner of grunge, Bernstein isn't exactly a household name—but it's a mesmerizing work, mixing the late poet's reedy voice with interviews with friends and associates. Manages to convey the city that claims Bernstein as its own. Opens 12/15. 1:24